[PROPOSED] ORDER (1) CONDITIONALLY CERTIFYING SETTLEMENT CLASS,
(2) GRANTING PRELIMINARY APPROVAL TO PROPOSED CLASS SETTLEMENT AND PLAN OF ALLOCATION, (3) DIRECTING DISSEMINATION OF NOTICE AND RELATED MATERIAL TO THE CLASS, AND (4) SETTING DATE FOR FAIRNESS HEARING AND RELATED DATES

Named Plaintiff Li Zhen Zhu and opt-in Plaintiffs Fausto Astudillo Ortega and Tomas Diaz Cruz (collectively “Plaintiffs”) and Defendants Wanrong Trading Corp., Tai He Trading Corp., Yi Ang Shao, Xiang Qi Chen, Xu Ming Ren, improperly sued here as “Ming Ren Xu,” and Tao Tao Ren (collectively “Defendants”) (collectively with Plaintiffs, “Parties”) negotiated a settlement of this litigation. The terms of the of the proposed settlement (“Settlement”) are set forth in the proposed Settlement Agreement and Release (“Settlement Agreement”).

On August __, 2022, Plaintiffs filed a Notice of Motion for an Order (1) Conditionally Certifying Settlement Class, (2) Granting Preliminary Approval to Proposed Class Settlement and Plan of Allocation, (3) Directing Dissemination of Notice and Related Material to the Class, and (4) Setting Date for Fairness Hearing and Related Dates (“Motion”). In their Motion, Plaintiffs requested that, for settlement purposes only, this Court conditionally certify a class under Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Plaintiffs also requested that the Court grant preliminary approval to the Settlement Agreement, including the plan of allocation in that Agreement, and that the court approve a proposed Notice of Proposed Settlement of Class Action Lawsuit and Fairness Hearing (“Class Notice”) and a proposed change of address form (attached to the Class Notice). Having reviewed the Settlement Agreement and Motion, along with the Parties’ prior submissions in this matter, the Court now FINDS, CONCLUDES, AND ORDERS as follows:

I. BACKGROUND

Plaintiffs bring claims under the Fair Labor Standards Act (“FLSA”) and the New York Labor Law (“NYLL”). Plaintiffs claim, inter alia, that Defendants failed to pay all wages due them, failed to pay minimum wage, overtime, and spread of time, and failed to furnish wage notices and wage statements. Plaintiffs, for themselves and others they claim are similarly situated, sought to recover, inter alia, their unpaid wages, liquidated and statutory damages, and attorneys’ fees and costs. Defendants have disputed, and continue to dispute, Plaintiffs’ allegations in this lawsuit, and Defendants deny any liability for any of the claims that have or could be alleged by Plaintiffs or the persons they seek to represent.

II. DEFINITION OF THE SETTLEMENT CLASS

The Parties have entered into the Settlement Agreement solely for the purposes of compromising and settling their disputes in this matter. As part of the Settlement Agreement, Defendants have agreed not to oppose, for settlement purposes only, conditional certification under Rules 23(a) and 23(b)(3) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the following settlement class (the “Class”):

Plaintiffs and all other current and former employees not exempt from receiving overtime, who worked for Defendants at the Plants [i.e., the following meatpacking plants and allied facilities in New York City operated by Defendants at: 32-33 Hunters Point Avenue, Long Island City, NY 11101; 32-35 Hunters Point Avenue, Long Island City, NY 11101; and 48-43 32nd Place, Long Island City, NY 11101] at any time from March 11, 2012 through March 11, 2022, and who do not opt out of the Litigation as explained below, amounting to approximately 240 Class Members.

III. RELEASE OF CLAIMS

Members of the Class who sign, negotiate, endorse, deposit, or cash their Settlement Checks in this matter will acknowledge the following: “RELEASE OF CLAIMS: By endorsing this check, I consent to join the case entitled Zhu v. Wanrong Trading Corp., No. 18-cv-00417 (ILG) (MMH), (E.D.N.Y.), and I hereby release Defendants from all wage and hour claims under the Fair Labor Standards Act, the New York Labor Law, and/or any other applicable wage-and-hour law, rule, or regulation brought or which could have been brought in the litigation, including, but not limited to, minimum wage and overtime claims.” All Settlement Checks shall be deemed filed with the Court at the time each Qualified Class Member signs, endorses, deposits, cashes, or negotiates their Settlement Check.

IV. CLASS CERTIFICATION

Preliminary settlement approval, provisional class certification, and appointment of class counsel have several practical purposes, including avoiding the costs of litigating class status while facilitating a global settlement, ensuring all class members are notified of the terms of the proposed Agreement, and setting the date and time of the final approval hearing. See In re Gen. Motors Corp. Pick-Up Truck Fuel Tank Prods. Liab. Litig., 55 F.3d 768, 790–02 (3d Cir. 1995) (noting practical purposes of provisionally certifying settlement class); Almonte v. Marina Ice Cream Corp., No. 16-cv-00660 (GBD), 2016 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 171033 (S.D.N.Y. Dec. 8, 2016) (conditionally certifying wage and hour settlement class and granting preliminary approval); Clem v. Keybank, N.A., No. 13-cv-00789 (JCF), 2014 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 42426 (S.D.N.Y. Mar. 27, 2014) (same).

In examining potential certification of the settlement class, the Court has considered (1) the allegations, information, arguments, and authorities cited in the Motion for Preliminary Approval and supporting Memorandum of Law and Declaration; (2) the allegations, information, arguments, and authorities provided by the Parties in connections with the pleadings and motions filed by each of them in this case; (3) information, arguments, and authorities provided by the Parties in conferences and arguments before this Court; (4) Defendants' conditional agreement, for settlement purposes only, not to oppose conditional certification of the settlement class specified in the Settlement Agreement; (5) the terms of the Settlement Agreement, including, but not limited to, the definition of the settlement class specified in the Settlement Agreement; and (6) the elimination of the need, on account of the Settlement, for the Court to consider any trial manageability issues that might otherwise bear on the propriety of class certification.

This Court finds (exclusively for the present purposes of evaluating the settlement) that Plaintiffs meet all the requirements for class certification under Rules 23(a) and (b)(3). As required under Rule 23(a), Plaintiffs have demonstrated that the class is sufficiently numerous, that there are common issues across the class, that the Plaintiffs' claims are typical of the class, and that the Plaintiffs and their attorneys would be effective Class Representatives and Class Counsel, respectively. The Court also finds that the common issues identified by Plaintiffs predominate over any individual issues in the case such that class action is superior in this context to other modes of litigating this dispute. Because the class certification request is made in the context of settlement only, the Court need not address the issue of manageability. The Court therefore concludes that the purported Class satisfies the elements of Rule 23(b)(3). Accordingly, pursuant to Rules 23(c) and (e), the court certifies this class for the purposes of settlement, notice and award distribution only.

Should this Settlement not receive final approval, be overturned on appeal, or otherwise not reach completion, the class certification granted above shall be dissolved immediately upon notice to the Plaintiffs and Defendants, and this certification shall have no further effect in this case or in any other case. Plaintiffs will retain the right to seek class certification in the course of litigation, and Defendants will retain the right to oppose class certification. Neither the fact of this certification for settlement purposes only, nor the findings made herein, may be used to support or oppose any Party's position as to any future class certification decision in this case, nor shall they otherwise have any impact on such future decision.

V. APPOINTMENT OF CLASS REPRESENTATIVES, CLASS COUNSEL, AND CLAIMS ADMINISTRATOR

Li Zhen Zhu, Fausto Astudillo Ortega, and Tomas Diaz Cruz are appointed representatives of the Class under Rule 23.

John Troy of Troy Law, PLLC is appointed counsel for the Class ("Class Counsel").

Simpluris is appointed Claims Administrator.

VI. DISPOSITION OF SETTLEMENT CLASS IF SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT DOES NOT BECOME EFFECTIVE

If, for any reason, the Settlement Agreement ultimately does not become effective, Defendants' agreement not to oppose conditional certification of the settlement class shall be null and void in its entirety; this Order conditionally certifying the settlement class shall be vacated; the Parties shall return to their respective positions in this lawsuit as those positions existed immediately before the Parties executed the Settlement Agreement; and nothing stated in the Settlement Agreement, the Motion, this Order, or in any attachments to the foregoing documents shall be deemed an admission of any kind by any of the Parties or used as evidence against, or over the objection of, any of the Parties for any purpose in this action or in any other action. In particular, the class certified for purposes of settlement shall be decertified, and Defendants will retain the right to contest whether this case should be maintained as a class action and to contest the merits of the claims being asserted by Plaintiffs.

VII. PRELIMINARY APPROVAL OF THE TERMS OF THE SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT, INCLUDING THE PROPOSED PLAN OF ALLOCATION

The Court has reviewed the terms of the Settlement Agreement and the description of the Settlement in the Motion papers. Based on that review, the Court concludes that the Settlement is within the range of possible Settlement approval such that notice to the Class is appropriate.

The Court has also read and considered the declaration of Aaron B. Schweitzer in support of preliminary approval. Based on review of that declaration, the Court concludes that the Settlement was negotiated at arm's length and is not collusive. The Court further finds that Class Counsel were fully informed about the strengths and weaknesses of the Class's case when they entered into the Settlement Agreement.

As to the proposed plan of allocation, the Court finds that the proposed plan is rationally related to the relative strengths and weaknesses of the respective claims asserted. The proposed plan of allocation is also within the range of possible approval such that notice to the Class is appropriate.

Accordingly, the Court hereby grants preliminary approval to the Settlement Agreement and the Plan of Allocation.

VIII. APPROVAL OF THE FORM AND MANNER OF DISTRIBUTING CLASS NOTICE AND OPT-OUT STATEMENT

Plaintiffs have also submitted for this Court's approval a proposed Class Notice and change of address form. The Court now considers each of these documents in turn.

The proposed Class Notice and change of address form appear to be the best notice practical under the circumstances and appear to allow the Class Members a full and fair opportunity to consider the Parties' proposed settlement and develop a response. The proposed plan for distributing the Class Notice and change of address form appears to be a reasonable method calculated to reach all Class Members who would be bound by the settlement.

The Class Notice fairly, plainly, accurately, and reasonably informs Class Members of: (1) appropriate information about the nature of this litigation, the settlement class at issue, the identity of Class Counsel, and the essential terms of the Settlement Agreement and Settlement; (2) appropriate information about Class Counsel's forthcoming application for attorneys' fees and other payments that will be deducted from the settlement fund; (3) appropriate information about how to participate in the Settlement; (4) appropriate information about this Court's procedures for final approval of the Settlement Agreement and Settlement; (5) appropriate information about how to challenge or opt-out of the Settlement, if they wish to do so; (6) appropriate information about how to notify the Claims Administrator of any address changes; and (7) appropriate instructions as to how to obtain additional information regarding this litigation, the Settlement Agreement, and the Settlement.

The Court, having reviewed the proposed Class Notice and change of address form, finds and concludes that the proposed plan for distributing the same will provide the best notice practicable, satisfies the notice requirements of Rule 23(e), and satisfies all other legal and due process requirements. Accordingly, the Court hereby Orders as follows:

1. The form and manner of distributing the proposed Notice Materials are hereby approved;
2. Promptly following the entry of this Order, the Claims Administrator shall prepare final versions of the Notice Materials, incorporating into the Notice the relevant dates and deadlines set forth in this Order;
3. Within fourteen (14) calendar days of the date of entry of this Order, Defendants will provide the Claims Administrator and Class Counsel with the information regarding Class Members in accordance with the Settlement Agreement;

4. Within thirty (30) calendar days of the date of entry of this Order, the Claims Administrator shall mail, via First Class United States Mail, postage prepaid, the final version of the Class notice, along with the change of address form, using each Class Member's last known address as recorded in Defendants' payroll system. The Claims Administrator shall take reasonable steps to obtain the correct address of any Class Members for whom the notice is returned by the post office as undeliverable and otherwise to provide the Class Notice. The Claims Administrator will attempt re-mailing to Class Members for whom the mailing is returned as undeliverable. The Claims Administrator shall notify Class Counsel and Defendants' Counsel of any mail sent to Class Members that is returned as undeliverable after the first mailing, as well as any such mail returned as undeliverable after the subsequent mailing; and

5. The Claims Administrator shall take all other actions in furtherance of claims administration as are specified in the Settlement Agreement.

IX. PROCEDURES FOR FINAL APPROVAL OF SETTLEMENT

a. FAIRNESS HEARING

The Court hereby schedules, for _____, at the hour of _____, a hearing to determine whether to grant final certification of the Settlement Class, and final approval of the Settlement Agreement and Plan of Allocation (the "Fairness Hearing"). At the Fairness Hearing, the Court also will consider any petition that may be filed for the payment of attorneys' fees and costs/expenses to Class Counsel, and any service payments to be made to Plaintiffs. Class Counsel shall file their petition for an award of attorneys' fees and reimbursement of costs/expenses and the petition for an award of service payments no later than fifteen (15) days prior to the Fairness Hearing.

The Claims Administrator shall stamp the postmark date and the date received on the original and send copies of each objection to the Parties by email not later than two (2) business days after receipt thereof. Counsel to the Parties shall also file the date-stamped originals of any and all objections with the Clerk of Court within ten (10) calendar days after the end of the Opt-Out Period.

d. DEADLINE FOR FILING MOTION FOR JUDGMENT AND FINAL APPROVAL

Any party seeking final approval of the settlement shall file a motion for same no later than fifteen (15) days before the Fairness Hearing.

f. QUALIFICATION FOR PAYMENT

Any Class Member who does not opt out will qualify for payment and will be sent a check containing their distribution of the Settlement after final approval of the settlement.
